JOB VACANCY

OVERVIEW

The Jiyan Foundation for Human Rights is seeking female applicants for the position of Mental Health Professional at our location in Mosul, Iraq.

Position: Mental Health Professional
Status: part or full-time employee
Based: Mosul, Iraq
Reports to: Head of Department
Gender: Male or Female
Required degree: Bachelor in Psychology or higher

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

1. Anamnesis and diagnostics of patients
2. Psychotherapeutic (long-term) treatment, including group and individual therapy
3. Regular follow-up of therapeutic progress, prevention of drop-outs and correct termination of therapy
4. Crisis intervention for clients in danger
5. Regular and complete documentation of patient data into the patient files and the database
6. Work in an interdisciplinary team, cooperation with other staff members, centers and external partners
7. Organization and realization of information and empowerment events for clients and members of marginalized groups as well as for parents and other caretakers
8. Regular active participation in staff-to-staff trainings, language trainings, case and team supervision, as well as seminars with external trainers
9. Regular self-study and use of the library
10. Regular visits to refugee camps
11. Regular attendance of external workshops, conferences, briefings and other meetings of relevant civil society networks, committees and working groups
12. Cooperate with the PR and advocacy team; support and participate in media work, public events, campaigns, advertisement, awareness raising and fundraising activities etc. Regular visits to refugee camps
REQUIREMENTS

1. Fluent in Arabic (English and Kurdish skills desired)
2. Completed bachelor’s degree or higher in psychology
3. Readiness to travel, including multi-day trips both nationally and internationally
4. Undertake any activity aimed at protecting clients, particularly children and youth, from violence and harm
5. Ability to work in an interdisciplinary team, cooperation with other staff members, centers and external partners
6. Active interest in promoting human rights and social justice

PERKS AND BENEFITS

1. Participation in staff-to-staff trainings, language trainings, as well as seminars with external trainers
2. Access to special library with large collection of literature on human rights, torture, mental and physical health etc. for self-study
3. Paid holidays (24 days for full-time position) plus 14 statutory holidays. Additional paid holidays, especially on the occasion of religious festivals, may be agree upon
4. Voluntary pension scheme with employer contributions

HOW TO APPLY

Please submit a cover letter and curriculum vitae to jobs@jiyan-foundation.org. Please use "Mental Health Professional Mosul" as the subject of your email.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Jiyan Foundation is an equal opportunity employer.